

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI

STANDING ORDER DELEGATING NOTICING OF
MEETINGS OF CREDITORS IN CHAPTER 12 AND CHAPTER 13 CASES
TO THE CASE TRUSTEE

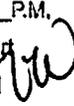

The United States Bankruptcy Code and the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure afford bankruptcy judges considerable discretion in the allocation of responsibility for providing notice of events in the course of bankruptcy cases and proceedings. The responsibility for noticing all meetings of creditors in Chapter 12 and Chapter 13 cases was delegated to the case trustee by this court in 1989 for Chapter 12 cases and 1987 for Chapter 13 cases. The court has reconsidered this policy and finds that it has worked well and should continue from and after February 1, 2010.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the trustee in all Chapter 12 and Chapter 13 cases filed in the Northern District of Mississippi is hereby delegated the responsibility of noticing all meetings of creditors. The form of the notice of meetings of creditors so generated shall be at the discretion of the trustee but, in any event, the notice shall specify the time and date of the meeting of creditors, advise of the stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. §§ 362, 1201 and 1301, specify the time within which proofs of claim may be filed and provide the address of the court where proofs of claim may be filed.

SO ORDERED, this the 1st day of February, 2010.
