Re: Public Notice for Reappointment of Bankruptcy Judge

You have received the Public Notice for my reappointment as a U.S. Bankruptcy Judge. The Public Notice indicates that the reappointment would be for a new 14-year term. I, however, intend to serve only fourteen months of any new term, a decision which I have shared previously with the Mississippi bankruptcy bar. In that regard, I have committed to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals to retire effective June 30, 2021, which is fourteen months after the commencement of the new term. I will turn 65 years of age during that month.

I am sending you this letter to avoid any confusion, particularly for those of you who may be interested in applying for this incredible opportunity.

Thank you,

Neil P. Olack
U.S. Bankruptcy Judge
Southern District of Mississippi
